Why you shouldn't miss the 2017 SHP Conference.

“There aren't enough superlatives in the dictionary to describe the SHP Conference”

...was how one teacher summed last year's conference.

Our 2017 Conference promises the usual mix of enjoyment, enrichment and inspiration. There will be a strong focus on teaching the new GCSEs, as well as lots of ideas and resources for Key Stage 3 and A level history.

The conference includes five plenary sessions packed with ideas and inspiration for taking forward history in your school:

- A zibaldone of history teaching: the vital role of commonplace things in the history classroom Diana Laffin
- Beyond and behind the headlines: resources and inspiration for teaching African history from KS3 to KS5 Toby Green and Gus Casey-Hayford
- Making historians matter to your students Rachel Foster and Kath Goudie
- Acting the facts: teaching the Norman Conquest through scripted drama Kate Brennan
- Ofsted: dispelling the myths about inspection Phil Smith HMI

You'll be able to attend five workshops, led by some of the country's most inspiring teachers and history educators. This year's conference includes a range of workshops to help you teach the new GCSE. Workshops also provide inspiration for Key Stage 3 and A level.

In 2017, SHP's eclectic fringe will include our usual Teachmeet as well as sessions from each of the Awarding Bodies on the new GCSEs

The one-stop resources exhibition provides a great opportunity to check out some great new resources, and to talk to exhibitors.
