

Teaching about Nazi Germany in the new GCSE History specifications

A day course for secondary history teachers

Saturday, 5 May 2018
10.30am- 4.00pm

King's College, London, Strand Campus

Conference fee: £40.00 (reduced fee of £20 for trainees)

including lunch and refreshments

Nazi Germany is one of the most popular options in the new GCSE history specifications. This day course, organised jointly by the Schools History Project and King's College London, will enhance your teaching of Nazi Germany, whichever specification you teach. It will share recent research from leading historians as well as successful teaching approaches from outstanding educators

Programme

10.30am-11.30am

Nazi propaganda and society

Dr Paul Moore, University of Leicester

11.30am-11.45am Break

11.45am-1.00pm

Learning about life in Germany, 1933-39

Richard Kennett, Redland Green School, Bristol

1.00pm-1.30pm Lunch

1.30pm-2.30pm

Dachau: a case study to inform your teaching

Dr Christopher Dillon, King's College, London

2.30pm-2.45pm Break

2.45pm-4.00pm

Authentic encounters: deepening students' understanding of the Holocaust

Tom Haward, Centre for Holocaust Education, UCL

HOW TO BOOK A PLACE

All applications and payments for this event will be made online.

Just go to <http://www.schoolhistoryproject.co.uk> and click on the King's College Conference link to make an on-line application and payment. Please follow all steps for a successful application. You will receive an acknowledgement by return email confirming your payment.

If you experience any difficulties in booking online please contact

Liz on 0113 2837100 ext 556 or email shp@leedstrinity.ac.uk